2016 Operations and Accomplishments

Greater Rochester Outdoor Sports Facility Corporation (GROSFC) is a New York Corporation that manages the operation of a sports stadium, in Rochester, New York known as Frontier Field. The County of Monroe owns the Stadium and leases it to GROSFC.

2016 was successfully completed with close to 300,000 baseball fans attending Rochester Red Wings games at Frontier Field between April and September.

Attendance Numbers

2013: 241,926
2014: 247,141
2015: 258,812
2016: 259,807

Frontier Field hosted 39 non-baseball events including charity walks, concerts and festivals which totaled over 60,000 attendees.

In March of 2015, the Greater Rochester Sports Authority assigned all of its rights and obligations with the stadium maintenance contract to GROSFC as part of its dissolution process. Monroe County continues to manage day-to-day Stadium maintenance and Rochester Community Baseball continues to oversee marketing activities. This arrangement has been successful and all parties involved are satisfied.
